BODEGAS LA HORRA

CORIMBO I 2019

LA HORRA || Bodegas La Horra is a venture from the iconic Rioja producer, Bodegas Roda. They spent four years in research and investigation to find the land best adapted to Tempranillo, the variety which is known in depth by the research and technical team at Roda. They found the most suitable region was Ribera del Duero and specifically within this DO, the area of La Horra. They partnered with the Balbas family, who own some of the most coveted vineyard sites in the village with old bush vines of Tinta del País.

RIBERA DEL DUERO || The cultivation of Tinta del País (Tempranillo) and winemaking tradition in Ribera del Duero was established by medieval monasteries and granted DO status in 1982. The DO vineyards lie on either side of a 110-km stretch of the river on limestone and chalk soils. The riverbanks and low-lying land with water lying close to the surface are called campiña (countryside) and terrazas (terraces); the shallow slopes above them, which are among the best for vines, are called laderas (sides), and steeper slopes called cuevas (slopes).

“Aromas of plush roasted spices, cedar, fine hazelnuts, chocolate and deep, fresh blackberries. Full-bodied and juicy, with tight chalky tannins and a very long, fine-boned finish. Structured but dissolved. 100% tempranillo. Drink or hold.”

“The 2019 Corimbo I was selected from vines over 60 years of age, fermented in French oak vat and matured for 16 months in oak barrels. There’s more stuffing, concentration and depth here, because of the vintage and the age of the vines. It’s powerful and generously oaked, modern, clean and nicely crafted. This is one that will age in bottle.”
