BODEGAS LA HORRA

CORIMBO 2022 || 93 points

“Rounded cassis and blackberry reduction are spiced up by licorice root, leather, and a lift of rose petal in this sturdy offering. There’s good focus, and shaved baking chocolate and chalky tannins feature on the finish. Impressive in both fruit and structure, this’ll be at its best from 2029 onward.”

“This has a dark, structured character that should come into its own from 2029 or so. Cassis and plummy dark fruit are infused with impressions of nutmeg, clove, vanilla, and sandalwood. Some leathery tannins and baking chocolate come in on the finish. Should be superb throughout the 2030s.”
